

Riddles in Conversation

An online seminar series
Spring/Summer 2022

Riddles in Conversation 1: 4th May, 3pm BST

Judy Kendall, 'Avant Garde Translation Techniques'

Riddles in Conversation 2: 11 May, 3pm BST

Emma Malony, Jacob Polley, Chris Jones, and Megan Cavell, 'Creative Communities'

Riddles in Conversation 3: 18 May, 3pm BST

Jim Reynolds, 'Ornithological Insights'

Riddles in Conversation 4: 25 May, 3pm BST

Sharif Adams, 'Woodcraft and Wordcraft'

Book tickets for these events for free on Eventbrite—just click on the links above.

---

---

For more information on the series, please contact Jennifer Neville (j.neville@rhul.ac.uk).

The seminar series is organised by Megan Cavell (University of Birmingham) and Jennifer Neville (Royal Holloway, University of London) as part of the AHRC-funded Group Identity and the Early Medieval Riddle Tradition project. Find out more about the project here.

---

---

Image of The Fuller Brooch courtesy of The Trustees of the British Museum, under a Creative Commons CC BY-NC-SA 4.0 licence.